CK REED

CK REED IS AN ARTIST AND DESIGNER WITH A SIGNATURE MIX OF VIVID TONES AND BOTANICAL MOTIFS.

She was selected as designer of the day by Surface Magazine who also published an article about her Los Angeles studio and custom "LA Plants" wallpaper design for ROOM. Three of her paintings were selected for the new Soho Pool House in Miami's Wynwood arts district. She won a design competition for the City of West Hollywood and was commissioned to paint a mural of her design on the sunset strip.

CK REED

She graduated from the Savannah College of Art and Design receiving a BFA in Fibers. After designing textiles for the fashion and interior design industries, she now freelances across many design platforms such as wallpaper design, packaging design, logo design, website design, and set design for commercial and film.

Based in Los Angeles, CK enjoys connecting with new people and businesses who want to elevate their products through great design that tells a story.

She believes strongly in collaboration and is deeply committed to her design practice.
